BALLOT INVENTORY PRESIDENTIAL GENERAL ELECTION November 4, 2008

Ballot inventory instructions:

- 1) Open the sealed white and brown ballot carton(s) and count the total ballots received by language. Verify that the numbers match with the numbers in the table below.
- 2) If the count does not match, record any discrepancies in the actual column provided. Call the "Ask a Trainer" hotline for further instruction.
- 3) If the count matches, sign and date this form on the signature line provided below.
 - a. Be sure to write the count on the ballot statement that is in the roster of voters (inside BLUE ENVELOPE TAB 1).
 - b. Re-seal the ballot carton with a blue security seal where the original seal was placed.
- 4) Mail the white form back to the Registrar of Voters in the self addressed stamped envelope on the same day as you inventory the ballots.
- 5) Please keep the yellow copy for your records.

Precinct number: 408190

Sequence number: 0840

English		Spanish		Filipino		Vietnamese		Total
Qty	Actual	Qty	Actual	Qty	Actual	Qty	Actual	Qty	Actual
800	800	75	75	5	5	10	10	890	890

Total Ballots 890

Total Facsimile Ballots* 90

*A facsimile ballot is not an official ballot. It is a tan colored English photocopy of the ballot that is handed out when a voter requests a Filipino, Spanish or Vietnamese ballot. "Facsimile Ballot" is written on them.

I have counted the official ballots issued to me and have received the same number as stated above.
